

Robert Wetzel

Broker Associate

Robert joined NAI Daus as a Broker Associate focusing on the acquisition, development and sale of vacant land. Robert brings working knowledge of the necessary construction components, approval process, sales and marketing of both improved and unimproved land.

Scope of Service Experience

Before joining NAI Daus, Robert was the Principal Broker of the real estate firm, Parkside Realty. There he managed all aspects of the business, including property listings and sales. Robert was also a Principal of Parkside Builders Inc., where he managed all areas of construction, from the residential structures to the company's land development needs. Along with this, Robert was Vice President of Operations at Central Contracting Corporation, where he focused on the installation of improvements for land development projects. With 20 years of experience in the development, construction and sales of commercial and residential land and structures, Robert brings many aspects to a real estate transaction.
